We received your note stating that a few members of the Williamson Street Cooperative have asked that Sabra Hummus no longer be sold at the Cooperative and are requesting information from Sabra.

Sabra is a North American company, headquartered in New York, proudly producing America's #1 hummus brand in Chesterfield County, Virginia. Our hummus is made using chickpeas grown on family-owned farms throughout the Pacific Northwest. Sabra Hummus is exclusively produced and distributed in North America with more than 500 team members based in the US and Canada.

Sabra is jointly owned by PepsiCo, which is headquartered in the U.S. and the Strauss Group, headquartered in Israel. Each company is a separate entity.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with additional questions. Attached please find an "About Sabra" you may share.
